States that as the Trustees have reported their inability to effect a Settlement in the matter of Mr. Bakshi Basappaji Urs' debts, owing to the majority of his creditors not being agreeable to the terms proposed by them, the Govt find it impossible to bring about any Settlement & adds that the Govt. are not, as they suppose withholding from the creditors any return from the Estates of Mr. Bakshi Basappaji Urs & that they are in his own management.

Sir,

We are duly in receipt of your letter No. F.C. 4255 Gl. Fin. 29-05-4 dated the 6th instant the contents of which have caused us extreme regret and disappointment. If, as you say that H. H. The Maharajah's Government are not prepared to undertake the settlement of our claim against Mr. Bakshi Basappajee Urs, we shall feel obliged by your kindly let us know why they interfered at all in the matter, and conveyed in their order F.O.L.O. No. 1200-2 dated the 16th November /03 to appoint Trustees to the Estate, calling for all claims and vouchers, which induced us to refrain from applying to our client direct. Besides, we have subsequently been in communication with these Trustees and have received from them more than one letter to the effect that payment was kept in abeyance pending Government orders.

Just about the time we received this notice, we were in communication with our client, receiving a payment from him a few days later, and but for this interference we would have long ere this received the full amount from Mr. Bakshi Basappajee Urs direct. We have not requested His Highness's Government to pay us, but under the aforesaid circumstances we solicit the favour of their assistance, as we are confident that there there is surely some sort of a return from the Estate during the course of the last two years, and can not understand why our rightful dues are being withheld by those in authority.

The whole case seems to be shrowded in mystry and a little more light on the subject would be esteemed a great favour.

We have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servants,

Ramanbo
